Montana

Unspoiled, unforgettable.

Published by Travel Montana, in cooperation with Montana's travel industry.

Montana is a big state with dramatically different landscapes and physical features. For your convenience, we have divided the state into six vacation regions, each with attractions and scenic values that live up to its name.

Charlie Russell Country is the land memorialized by this famed western artist—cowboys and Plains Indians, buffalo, buttes, dramatic skies and the grand Missouri River. This is where the mountains meet the plains. Phone: 1-800-527-5348.

Custer Country is the site of the most famous Indian battle in U.S. history. Here, Lt. Col. George Custer lost his life in 1876 against an underestimated force of Sioux and Cheyenne warriors. Here, too, are vast cattle ranches, great rivers and Montana's largest city. Phone: 406-665-1671.

Glacier Country is Montana's northwest corner, where lofty mountains set the pace. Here, is magnificent Glacier National Park, watchable wildlife, wild rivers, scenic golf courses, wilderness and lakes scattered like jewels. Phone: 406-756-7128.

Gold West Country is Montana's southwest corner, where the West's colorful history comes to life in restored mining camps, mansions and union halls. Here, too, are fabled mountains, blue-ribbon trout streams and Montana's capital city. Phone: 406-846-1943.

Missouri River Country is Montana's northeast corner, where a great river sets the theme for a vast landscape of prairies, lakes, wildlife and waterfowl refuges. Here, everything is big, with ranches measured in miles. Phone: 406-654-1776.

Yellowstone Country is Montana's gateway to Yellowstone National Park. Its legendary rivers, majestic peaks, vast forests and wilderness areas make it headquarters for some of the world's finest trout fishing and outdoor recreation. Phone: 1-800-736-5276.

Montana's motels and hotels are listed alphabetically by town. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code, and 800 numbers are listed where applicable. Here you will also find listings for accommodations in Montana's national parks, Glacier and Yellowstone. Look for them under the name of the park. In addition, towns which are adjacent to the parks are listed immediately following each park. In the Glacier National Park area, look for East Glacier Park (southeast entrance), St. Mary (east), Babb (northeast), Polebridge and West Glacier (west). In the Yellowstone National Park area, look for Cooke City and Silver Gate (northeast entrance), Gardiner (north) and West Yellowstone (west).

No amusement park rides, no water slides. No lines or crowds or traffic jams. We don't put on our Sweet Pea Festival, Taste of Bozeman or Christmas Stroll just to bag a few tourists. We do it for fun. Be our guest when you're in the mood to feel good.

Bozeman is a wonderful place to do nothing. Or everything. Call us for more information at

Ranches & Resorts Hostels & Hot Springs

Listings are arranged by vacation region.

Montana's guest ranches and resorts offer destination vacations with a special flair. Each offers a unique blend of western hospitality and activities. No two are alike. The only constant is a spectacular setting—towering Rocky Mountains, timbered valleys, spacious prairies and pristine lakes, rivers and streams. You'll be far from worldly worries and right up close to horses, wild trout, watchable wildlife, chuckwagon barbecues, soothing hot springs, golf, tennis and so much more.

The listings below are arranged according to Montana's vacation regions. Reservations are almost always required at these guest ranches and resorts, so be sure to call or write in advance. All local telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code. Ranches that belong to the national Dude Ranchers' Association are indicated by "DRA" immediately following the ranch name.

Guided Hunting, Hiking, Fishing & Float Trips

Listings are arranged by administrative region.

Some of Montana's best vacations are off the beaten path ... in wilderness camps, on remote whitewater rivers, in range after range of rugged Rocky Mountains. Let an outfitter show you the time of your life on a Montana Adventure Vacation.

The accompanying map shows the administrative regions of the state, designated by Montana's Board of Outfitters. Licensed outfitter services are listed by region, alphabetically by town within each region. All telephone numbers are reached by the 406 area code unless specified otherwise.

For more information about nonresident hunting and fishing licenses and season dates, write or call the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife & Parks, 1420 East Sixth, Helena, MT 59620, (406) 444-2535.

11-12 Hwy. 287, North • Cameron, MT 59720 • (406) 682-7690
Montana's finest guest ranch, centrally located to fish the West's legendary rivers.
Deluxe lodge and elegant cabins newly constructed of native log and stone.

- Pack trips into the Lee Metcalf Wilderness or Yellowstone Park.
- Guided float trips on the Madison or the Henry's Fork river.
- Walk/wade the Gallatin, the Firehole, plus many virtually unknown, productive waters of the Yellowstone region.

A great place in a great setting to fish, ride and relax.

Public campgrounds are arranged alphabetically within each vacation region. The campgrounds listed here are primitive in comparison with the private campgrounds listed on pages 57-67. Generally, they offer parking spaces, toilets and various recreational opportunities, including fishing, boating, hiking and swimming. All can be reached by car. After selecting a campground on the regional map, go to the narrative listing for more detailed information about the campground. The regional maps are for general reference only. Use the location descriptions and the Montana Highway Map to find these campgrounds. Telephone numbers for the state and federal agencies that manage Montana's public campgrounds are listed on page 79.
